Diary Entry

In the story, Malcolm keeps waking up as different animals. Can you write a diary entry as someone who has woken up as an animal?

What are some of the first things they might notice? How would it be different to being a person? How would they feel about it?

Dear Diary,

What happened next?

How did this change the way you felt and why?

If this were to happen again, what would you do differently? What did you learn from this experience?
